

Marketing Team Questionnaire

	Yes	No
Our team can easily prove the financial impact of marketing
Our team can quickly see ROI from several different perspectives such as content type, content name, medium, source, job title, target account, etc.
We can instantly see ROI analytics in real time
New content campaigns are tracked automatically without having to set up new workflows in Marketing Automation
Our campaign tracking data lives natively in SFDC and can be used in reports, dashboards or other BI tools

If you answered “No” to any of the items above, rampmetrics can help! Let rampmetrics save your team time and money with automatic conversion tracking with zero campaign setup. Get in touch for a free demo!
